

Celebrate the Heritage of the Show-Me State and Help Improve the Quality of Life for Missouri's Youth

The magnificent artistry of Steve Kelton captures the beauty, history and diversity of Missouri in these elegant pencil sketches. From the Truman Library to the Gateway Arch to the 'helping hand' of the Foundation, you'll be captivated by the detail and precision in these wonderful prints,

Available framed and matted or unframed, these artist-signed and numbered works of art will be an attractive addition to a home or office. Plus, you help build a strong future for Missouri families and our local communities. The proceeds benefit the Missouri's Cattlemen Foundation's scholarship program, farm safety / youth education efforts and a matching grant program for physically challenged youth.
